A Brief Report on Workshop Programme

The Department of Social Work, ICFAI University Meghalaya, Tura Campus, organised a two-day workshop titled “Learning with Communities: Participatory Rural Appraisal Tools and Techniques for Community Development” on 6th November 2026 at the ICFAI Hall and 7th November 2026 at Lower Danakgre, Meghalaya. The workshop was facilitated by Ms. Anisha Sangma from MSRLS. The following day, the MSRLS team, along with members of the Village Organisation facilitated the social work students, ICFAI-Tura Campus, in PRA Tools Practice. Through interactive sessions, community engagement and participatory mapping exercises, students gained practical exposure to various PRA tools and techniques. The workshop provided valuable field-based learning, strengthening students’ understanding of community participation, local resource identification and participatory approaches to sustainable rural development.
