

REPORT ON THE LECTURE PROGRAM

Topic: The Importance of Non-Verbal Communication

Date: 16th April 2026

Venue: ICAI University Meghalaya, Shillong Building 4

The ICAI University Meghalaya, in collaboration with the NSS Cell, successfully organized a lecture on the topic “The Importance of Non-Verbal Communication” on 16th April 2026 at Building 4, Nongrim Hills, Shillong.

The program commenced with the host, Ms. Noksangmedangla Tzudir, Assistant Professor of the English Department, who warmly welcomed the gathering and introduced the purpose of the event and about the journey life of our guest.

This was followed by the welcome address delivered by Mr. Namphyrnai .N. Nonglait Assistant Lecturer from the Tourism department, who extended his greetings to the guest speaker, faculty members, and students.

Subsequently, Ms. Bawan Ryntathiang, NSS Programme Coordinator (PC), facilitated the guest speaker, Sir Colonel Kushwinder Singh, as a mark of respect and appreciation.

The lecture then began, where Sir Colonel Kushwinder Singh delivered an insightful session on the importance of non-verbal communication.

He highlighted how body language, facial expressions, gestures, and posture play a vital role in effective communication, both in personal and professional life.

After the lecture, an interactive session was conducted where students and faculty members actively participated by asking questions and sharing their views. The discussion was engaging and helped deepen the understanding of the topic.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. H. Jones Syiem, Faculty Member and Programme Officer of the National Service Scheme (NSS PO). He expressed gratitude to the guest speaker, organizers, and participants for making the event successful.

The event ended on a positive note, and light refreshments were provided to the volunteers at the end of the program.

Overall, the program was conducted successfully and proved to be highly informative and beneficial for all attendees.

